In the Probate Court May Term, 1849, an account of the Guardianship of the persons and effects of Joseph Moore, Milton Moore, and Enos Moore, minor heirs of John Moore, deceased _____ the appointment of the Guardian by said Court to the present time.

Joseph Moore has been put to the Blacksmith trade _____ distributive share of the estate of John Moore , both real estate and personal has been laid out in lands, by order of said Court which has been reported.

Milton Moore is living with James E. Wilcoxon where he is comfortable situated.

Upon the division made of the affects of John Moore, deceased, both real and personal - the guardian by agreement with the heirs that were of lawful age, went into a division of said estate which consisted of money, Notes and Judgments. The notes and judgments were of the personal effects of said estate which was obtained by the administrator of said estate -- the entire amount of money, notes, and judgements due each heir at the division was $738. 12 cents. Consequently the amount due Milton and Enos Moore, minor heirs, was $1476.24 and of that amount $1197.02 was the effects of the real estate of John Moore.

The $1197.02 has been loaned at Interest until it amounted at the taking of the last notes which was Nov. 14, 1848 to $1651.88. In two notes on Philip Moore dated Nov. 14, 1848 the entire amount of the personal effects due Milton and Enos Moore consisting of notes and judgments was $$279.22

A considerable of said personal _____ due said heirs Milton & Enos Moore is yet standing on Esqr. Hodes docket and other dockets of Justices of the Peace and so slowly collected that it is hardly worth while to go to se (?) dockets - but receipts for collection show $95.60

And a part have proved to be worthless towit: One note on Thomas J. Collins and Colwell C. Johnson calling for $19 principle and one on Colwell C. Johnson and Thomas J. Collins calling for $20 making together $39.00.

And one on the estate of John Gregory, filed 1 receipt for keeping Enos Moore in his infancy 3 years & 4 months, dated August 31st, 1843.....$50.00

Note on J. E. Wilcoxon dated Nov. 15, 1847.....$29.70

One note on Baily and Joseph Wilcoxon due July 3, 1844 calling for $22 was collected in d____s during the last year.

WILLIAM ROBEY

MARY COLLINS ROBEY

JOHN HARRELL and ELIZABETH JEMIMA ROBEY

Dear all:

I have been visiting a number of personal websites on Ancestry.com and am seeing the man in this photo of the couple misidentified as William Robey. The man is John Harrell who married Elizabeth Jemima Robey about 1850. His great-great-grandson has identified him as John Harrell, and he sent me a photo of John and his brother that was taken in those same chairs, probably on the same day. We think this might be their wedding photo, but don't know for sure.

If you have put this person's photo on your ancestry.com site, please identify him properly. I have seen it repeatedly on various sites and don't have time to write to each person individually. If you know of someone who has this photo misidentified on a website or wherever, please let them know and ask them to change it. I know I have shared this photo of William Robey with most of you, but I'm sending it again in case I missed someone.

Thank you for your help in getting out correct information.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that set of discs. Discs may be purchased individually or as sets.

Please Note:

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

Solomon McCall, The Southern Ohio Pioneer

Solomon McCall was born in Argyle, Scotland in 1753. He ran away to America at the age of 16. He landed on Long Island but settled in Cumberland, New Jersey, where he served the Philanthropist who paid his passage to America. He was past 21 when he finished this service. Uriah, son of William McCall told his grandchildren, "That Solomon received $100.00 and a horse for good service to Moses Burton, Sr. We do know that he married the daughter Sarah. To Quote from "Hanging Rock Iron Region." "Solomon McCall was born in Scotland, 1753 of Scotch ancestry. Died in Green Township -- Adams Co., Ohio, 1825. He is buried in the McCall Cemetery, Sandy Springs. Married Sarah Burton, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was born about 1770 in New Jersey, and died about 1844 in Adams County, Ohio. Solomon served as a ranger for the Pennsylvania troops. No pay"

He married 1 January 1790, Sarah Burton, the daughter of his benefactor. They settled in Westmoreland, Co., Pennsylvania where all but one of his sons were born on Jacobs creek. The Pennsylvania census of 1790 Fayette County -- Jacobs Creek reads: "Solomon McCall, head of house, 2 males over 16 years (Solomon and his brother-in-law Moses Burton Jr.) 1 male under 16 ( son John 1790-1836) 1 female over 16 (Sarah Burton McCall)." Under Taxable: "Solomon McCall, Fayette County, Tyron Twp. Tax : 15lbs, 0 shillings, 0 pence."

Solomon McCall and his brother-in-law Moses Burton Jr., obtained a large tract of land along the Ohio River, in the Ohio County, Ironridge Twp. in what is now Adams and Scioto Counties. It was the equivalent of two sections and reached from east Sandy Springs to Upper Twin Creek and included what was later the "Freestone quarries" north of Buena Vista and the land to McCall west line. His first homestead was probably made of logs and was located less than 200 yards southwest of the present home of the McCall brothers of Sandy Springs. Here the youngest son Moses Burton and the 3 younger daughters were born.

Solomon and Moses Burton came to the Ohio country in 1797. They were both skilled workmen in wood and timber and the fine sandstone they found outcropping along the hillsides responded to the tools and workmanship.

Solomon and Moses hewed and erected three large stone houses on their acres. The first one was located about 1/2 mile east of the first home. It was close to the river bank, where the hill is nearest the river. It was completed in 1803 as the State Ohio was ready for admittance. the second one was built about 1810 at the mouth of Grog Run, halfway between Buena Vista and the later site of Rockville. This one was turned over to Joseph and Furman Moore at the end of the War of 1812 by Moses Burton when he and Solomon sold their stone rights to the Moore Brothers. The third one was finished about 1818 and is still standing and in good condition, due to the fact that it was the only one away from river floods and water damages. It is located on highway #52, one mile east of Buena Vista near the "Buckhorn" Lodge and apple houses. These men used a wood saw on all three of these houses, made of London Spring Steel. It has a hand carved handle. It is still in use and is owned by Mark P. McCall of Sandy Springs. Moses Burton returned to Philadelphia before, 1820, as he does not appear in either the Adams or Scioto County census of 1820.

From "History of Philadelphia, PA." "Moses Burton was the originator of the "Burton Saw" of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was in the furniture business until his death in 1842. His sons carried on the business till 1874 or 1882. then it was taken over by a large company. Then in 1894 it was taken over by a sister's sons and is still in the hands of the family. (1946)

Solomon's sons John and William served with the Kentucky riflemen as sharpshooters under Andrew Jackson at New Orleans behind the cotton bales at "Chalamette." John in particular was an expert shot as was his father. John made hunting and fishing his chief trade and followed it all his life.

In 1817, Solomon McCall Sr. sold his first homestead and the surrounding acres to his son Duncan and his wife Mary (Smith) McCall and moved to the first stone house erected close to the river bank, 1/2 or 1/4 mile east of the original home. Here he lived until his death in 1825. He is buried on the hill in sight of both his residences, in the McCall Cemetery.

Inventory of his will and property was made March 29, 1825. Personal property totaled 128.98 a nice sum in the days when a solid walnut chest sold for as little as $3.00 or $4.00. His inventory was signed by Recompense and William Murphy and Levi Matterson or Masterson. His administrators were Moses Baird and David McCall.

ROCKVILLE

This village is situated about six miles above Rome, on the Ohio River, near the stone Quarries, hence the name. It was laid out January 14, 1830, with a plat of twenty-six lots; S. B. McCall proprietor.

John Loughery, an enterprising citizen, who lived adjoining or within the village, not liking the class of citizens that had settled in it, bought out one by one the lot owners, petitioned the court for and obtained an order to vacate the place. The several houses yet remaining are occupied by tenants, but there is no business carried on any more in the place. The occupants of the houses are mostly laborers, who work in the quarries.

COMMERCIALTOWN

It was laid out January 13, 1832, in eighteen lots. It never flourished or did much business. At present there is one small grocery store, one marble shop and a small steam mill for grinding corn. A post office was kept here for awhile, but it was removed to the neighboring village of Buena Vista, in Scioto County.

The two south bedrooms on the 2nd floor are part of the two-up, two-down Adams structure as it existed at the time the Moore family moved into the house in 1864. The south bedroom has the original wood graining known to be popular in mid century. The large heavy pieces of furniture are typically Victorian. This room was the site of two major events in the family's life, the birth of Mary in 1896 and the death of Charles Wesley Moore in 1898. The nursery is the most eclectic room in decoration, with children's toys and furnishings from several different decades.

The dining room centers on the 1910s, but has reminders of earlier times also. The mourning picture, which dates to the period of 1815-1822, was the formal expression of mourning made by a girl (Will Youse's grandmother) whose brother died at the age of 22. The dishes and silverplate illustrate the Sunday best of this middle class family.

Although there were never any fireplaces in the house, there are two mantle shelves, one in the dining room and the other in the main bedroom. In fact, the mantle shelf remained a staple of wall decoration for years after stoves eliminated fireplaces in many homes.

The kitchen is keyed to the 1920s and 1930s, with an electric refrigerator and gas cooking stove illustrating the appearance of modern appliances in the middle class home.

Mary's bedroom is the most recently opened room. It reflects Mary's life during her 19-year courtship by Jack Maxon and her 11-year marriage to him. The sturdy old pieces of furniture provided a familiar setting in this bedroom furthest away from the traffic and noise of the corner. Mementos of her travels before and after her marriage are displayed. From the small oriental chest on the marble top dresser to the Japanese prints on the wall and the oriental rug on the floor, these mementos provided Mary with comfort during her last years.

A Piece of Delaware County History

Delaware County History

When Mary (Youse) Maxon died in 1982, she left her house and its contents to the Delaware County Historical Society with the provision that the organization establish and maintain a museum of Delaware County history.

The Moore-Youse home and the story of the three generations who lived there are used to illustrate the history of the community. This middle class home and its furnishings are like the homes of most middle class families of the period.

The house first came into the family when Samuel Wilson purchased the house in early 1864 and later in the year passed it on to his daughter, Clara Jane. Clara had married C. W. Moore and they had two small children, Mary E. and Charles, when they moved into the house in 1864.

The house probably began as a one-room cabin before 1849. It is thought that the structure became a typical "two up, two down" house in 1849, when the property was first recorded by the Assessor. And thus it remained when C. W. and Clara Moore moved into it in 1864.

As C. W. Moore established his legal practice and the family needs grew, additions were made. The present dining room space was first added onto the northwest corner, then the present kitchen and docent lounge in the northeast corner. It appears that C. W. Wilson had a small office for a few years in the present docent lounge—the door transom is still there.

The house grew as the family grew. The present furnishings were purchased over many years. The family apparently bought the best they could afford and seldom discarded pieces.

After an extended courtship, Mary E., better known as Mayme or Mame, married William Riley Youse in 1893. Their daughter, Mary, did not marry until after the deaths of her parents in the 1940s. Her husband, John J. Maxon, died in 1957. Mary (Youse) Maxon died in 1982 at the age of 86.

People today have difficulty envisioning three generations in this middle class home. After their marriage in 1893, Will and Mayme Youse lived there with her parents. Then Mary was born in 1896. C. W. Moore died in 1898 and Clara Moore lived until 1904. Thus all three generations lived together for a few years.

The House

The house probably began as a one-room cabin before 1849. It is thought that the structure became a typical "two up, two down" house in 1849, when the property was first recorded by the Assessor. And thus it remained

The back parlor or music parlor decoration has been based on an early 1900s picture of the room showing a Christmas tree with decorations and presents appropriate to the child, Mary, born in 1896. The large J. Ottis Adams painting of the Bookbinder's Daughter is a main feature of the room.

The entry hall reflects the 1880s, not long after the entry area with its new stairway along the new dining room wall was added. The hall tree was an important piece of furniture in this period, as it provided a place to put hats, gloves, umbrellas and canes for visitors to the home.

Most of the furnishings and accessories in the Moore Yousse Home Museum belonged to the middle class family who lived there from 1864 until 1982. The rooms are decorated to reflect various periods of time in the life of that family.

Dear Betty,

Thanks for your question about your Philip Moore. Normally, we charge $15 per hour for research, but I am going to waive the fee in your case, because I am a descendant of your John's uncle, also John Moore, and his wife, Sarah (Lewis). I have compiled quite a bit of information about this family, but I would very much appreciate a copy of the probate papers you mention, and would also like to have the information about the later generations you offered. We often can connect people searching the same family.

First, the bad news. I do not find your Philip or Sarah in the 1860 or 1870 Census, and do not find that they died or were buried in Delaware County! The Sarah you mentioned at Beech Grove could be the one, but I doubt that such a well-to-do and prominent family would have buried someone without a marker, and most of the other members of the family from that generation are buried at Parker Moore Cemetery, which, by the way, is set for restoration this coming summer. (I chair our Pioneer Cemetery Preservation Committee, and we restored Collins Cemetery last year. There is a Philip Moore buried there, but he is too old to be the one you seek; he is likely your Philip's uncle.)

We do find that Philip Moore married Sarah McCall in Delaware County on 6 July 1837. As you know, they do appear in the 1850 Census here, but not after that, so they must have moved, probably to Allen County, since the daughter you mention was married there. Luckily, the Allen County Library has the second largest genealogy collection in the state, so I suggest you continue to search for them there. Young, single women rarely lived alone in those days, so at least one of her parents must have lived there. Do you know the year of that marriage?

We also know that your Philip was alive in 1885, because his brother, William J. celebrated his 50th wedding anniversary that summer, and the occasion was covered in the Muncie newspaper. Philip is listed as "absent" from the celebration, but the fact that he is mentioned with the other siblings who did attend leads us to believe that he was alive. No mention of his wife or his place of residence at the time is given in that article, unfortunately. (William and his wife, Sarah (Wilcoxon) are also buried at Parker Moore Cemetery.)

I have no information about the McCalls, but it is likely that they did come from Scioto County, for so many of our pioneer families had been neighbors there. Your Philip's parents, John and Nancy (Jackson) were married in Scioto County on 12 July, 1806. They <sup>were</sup> ~~to~~ came to Delaware County in 1830, bringing most of their children (12 or 13 in all, sources vary). My theory is that they came here because Nancy's brother, Lemuel, had settled here in 1825 and was one of the founders of Muncietown, as it was called then. Scioto County borders the Ohio River, and I am guessing that there was one last flood that caused several of the Moores' relatives and neighbors to leave the area, even though they were well established and apparently successful farmers there. Nancy died in 1838; John died in 1840, and both are buried at Parker Moore Cemetery, as you likely know. (My ancestors, John and Sarah (Lewis) Moore appear to have come here at the same time; they died three days apart in Sept. 1839. They are also buried at Parker Moore, as are the son who is my ancestor, William Roby Moore, both of his wives, and some of their children.

By the way, the cemetery is named for Parker Moore, son of Lewis and Patience (Truitt). I'm not certain yet who the parents of Lewis are, but I think they may also be John and Sarah. I do know that the Jemima Freeman buried at Parker Moore is their daughter, and the Eleanor Truitt there is the sister of my John.

Still with me? There's more!

I am attaching a list of John and Nancy's children, with some information about each. (As a part of our restoration project, I'm compiling biographical data about everyone at Parker Moore Cemetery—a huge but rewarding task.) Anything you can add later would be MUCH appreciated!

We have traced this branch of the Moores to "Moore Place" in the Kent region of England, as early as 1400. The first family member to arrive in America appears to be Rev. John Moore, a young clergyman who married Margaret Howell (dau of Edward and Frances (Paxton) of Boston, later Newtown, Long Island. He died in September 1657 at Newtown, Long Island, age 37. Margaret's father is credited as a founder of Long Island; I can't yet confirm this. I do know that she married another clergyman after John's death.

John and Margaret's son, Gershom, was born about 1644 in Newtown, married Deborah Betts, died before 1691, probably on Long Island.

Their son Gershom Moore Jr. was born on Long Island, married Mercy Betts (How is she related to Deborah?), died 1722 in Maidenhead, New Jersey.

Their eldest son, Thomas, born 1704 Maidenhead, New Jersey, married Esther Phillips, died 1797 in Maidenhead, New Jersey.

Their son Philip was born 1726 in Maidenhead, New Jersey, married Eleanor "Nelly": Evans in Hunterdon County, New Jersey, 1747. (NOTE: There MUST be another wife for him, as you will agree when you look at the birth dates of his children.) I'm not certain of this birth order, but the names are correct, according to the DAR:

1. Philip Moore Jr. (YOUR ANCESTOR) Born 1761, New Jersey. Married Jemima (Lewis) Robey, widow of William Robey Sr., on 10 Dec. 1782 in Prince George County, MD. He died 3 Sep. 1823 in Scioto Co. Ohio; she died 26 Dec. 1821, Scioto Co. Ohio. They had 4 children (John, born 18 Oct. 1784, Levi, Philip III, Nelly, plus her son, William Robey Jr.). William moved to IL and later to Texas, died age 99. Levi remained in Ohio, his family became riverboat captains on the Ohio. His great-granddaughter, Marianne Moore won a Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1952. She never married. Nelly married Dr. Charles Waddell in Scioto County. Her descendant Audrey Johnson, joined the DAR in 1998. Jennifer Uricks, a descendant of Levi has a website where you can read about that line. Visit www.uticks.com and click on "The Moores of Portsmouth."

2. Evan (married Catherine Piles in Scioto County, 15 Jan 1829).
3. John, born 1772, married Sarah Lewis (sister of #1 Jemima), died Sept. 1839, Delaware County IN. (MY ANCESTOR). Both buried at Parker Moore Cemetery.
4. Daniel (died young)
5. Amos (married Winifred Calvert 25 Mar 1832, Scioto County.) They are both buried in Collins Cemetery, Muncie IN. Date they moved to IN unknown, probably 1832.
6. Sarah (died young, buried with parents)
7. Elizabeth (?)
8. Cassandra (married John Collins 1 Jan 1817, Scioto Co.)
Should be #10
9. Nelly (Eleanor) born 1809, married Parker Truitt 15 Jun 1827, Scioto Co. Moved to IN about 1832; buried Parker Moore Cemetery, Muncie IN.
10. Joseph (married Mary Lawson in Scioto Co., 15 Jan 1812)

The home that Philip Moore Jr. built in 1797 is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. It is open for tours by appointment, and is known as the Cradle of Methodism in Ohio. Go to an excellent website, www.scioto.org to learn more about the house, its history, and more about Scioto County.

The home of his grandson, Charles Wesley (your Philip's brother) is owned and operated as a museum by Delaware County Historical Society! Did you know that? Charles, his daughter Mary, and her daughter, Mary (Youse) Maxon occupied the house 1864-1982.

I just confirmed this connection between the 2 museum homes, and it seems quite remarkable to me that no one else ever figured this out, and that the same family had 2 noteworthy homes in 2 centuries in 2 states! But, it has taken me over a year of hard work to straighten out the myriad of Moores to this point, and I'm not finished.

So, I am pleased to hear from a Moore cousin, and I hope some of this information is new and interesting to you. I'm sorry that I can't answer your question about the ultimate fate of Philip, but we'll keep after it, and I expect to find out eventually. Do try looking for him in Allen County, if you haven't yet. Keep in touch, and visit us if you can.

Sincerely,

Sue Roszell

Obituary of William J. Moore

"William J. Moore was born in Scioto County, Ohio, June 4, 1813, died of cancer September 1, 1898, aged eighty years, two months and twenty-seven days. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the M.E. church, of which he had been an active and consistent member and one of its most liberal supporters ever since its organization; interment at the Moore graveyard two and one half miles east of this city, which was attended by a very large concourse of friends and relatives. The four sons and two son-in-laws [sic] acted as pall bearers.

The subject of this sketch removed from his native place and located in Delaware County some three miles southeast of Muncie in 1830. In the year 1852 he left his farm, now owned by Mr. Charles Cecil, and moved to Selma and engaged in the mercantile business and continued to reside in the town of which he was one of the founders, until his demise.

He was a man of strong mind and individuality, a close reader, a deep thinker and a ready debater. He greatly delighted in debating with opponents worthy of his steel. He was a good neighbor, kind, considerate, sympathetic, ever ready to extend a helping hand to the needy. He said to the writer only a few days before his death, 'that the only thing of a worldly nature that worried him now was what would become of the poor people during these troublesome times,' referring to the scarcity of money and the closing down of factories. In politics he was a staunch Republican and loyal to the core. His honesty and integrity were unquestioned. He was never known to do a dishonest act during his long life.

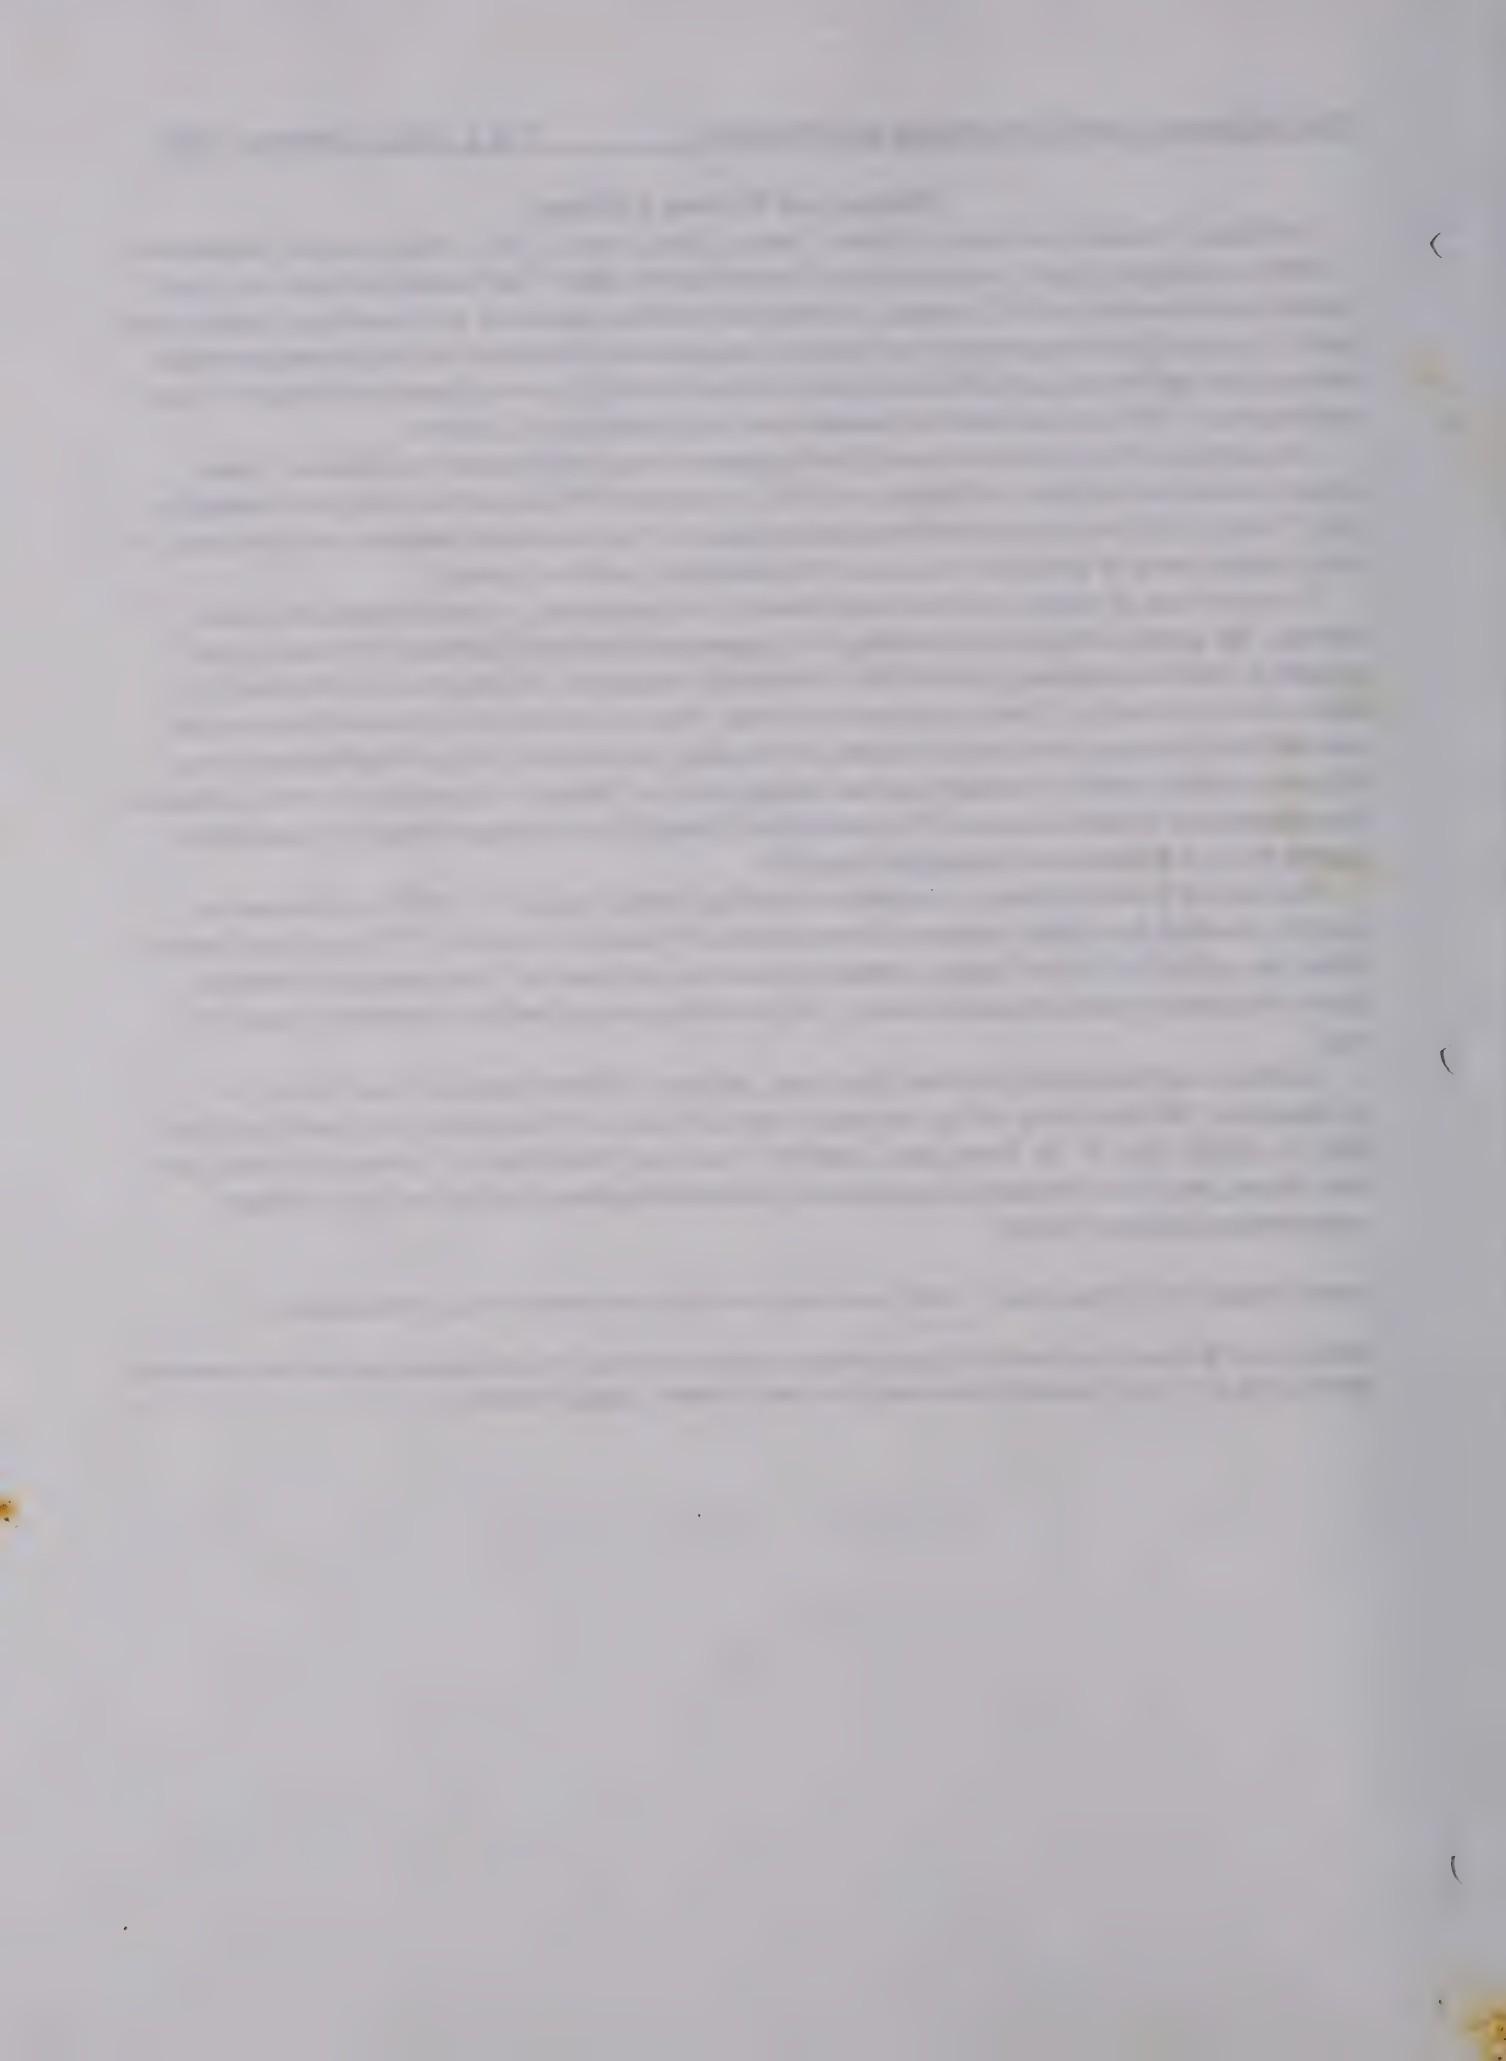

He married Sarah Wilcoxon, a woman of sterling worth, August 13, 1835, with whom he happily traveled down life's pathway for more than 57 years, or until the 12th day of last January when she, at the call of her Master, passed beyond the gates and as father said as he lovingly placed his hand on her face said in death, 'she has only gone on before to prepare a place for me.'

To them were born eight children: four sons, Asbury, of Bellefontaine, Ohio; John L. of Indianapolis; William Roby of this city and Charles Wesley of Winchester; and four daughters, Mrs. Dr. Skiff; Mrs. W. H. Burtt; Mrs. John W. Clark; and Miss Sarah A. Moore, all living in or near Selma, and all of whom were spared and permitted to attend the last sad rites of their respected and beloved father."

Source: Muncie Daily Times, Sept. 5, 1898. Apparently, this tribute was written by one of the children.

Editor's note: William J. and Sarah (Wilcoxon) Moore are buried in Parker Moore Cemetery, as are their pioneering parents, John and Nancy (Jackson) Moore, and Lloyd and Elizabeth (Truitt) Wilcoxon.

Liberty Township Pioneer William Jackson Moore Celebrated Golden Wedding Anniversary August 13, 1885

"One of the most pleasant and interesting meetings of this kind ever held in this county was assembled in Selma at the residence of William J. Moore, August 13, 1885, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of William J. Moore and Sarah Moore, his wife. William J. Moore was born in Oldtown, Scioto County, Ohio, June 4, 1813. He came to Delaware County, Ind., in the fall of 1830 [with his parents, John and Nancy (Jackson) Moore], where he has resided ever since. Sarah Wilcoxon was born in Oldtown, Scioto County, Ohio, April 3, 1816, and has been a resident of this county since the fall of 1832. William J. Moore and Sarah Wilcoxon were married [in Delaware County] August 13, 1835, their residence then being on White River, three miles southeast of Muncie, and until May, 1852, since which time they have lived in Selma.

There were present of Mr. Moore's brothers and sisters Levi Moore, of Marion County, Ind.; Charles W. Moore, of Muncie; Enos Moore, of Warren County, Ind.; and Mrs. Jemima Wilcoxon [wife of Sarah's brother, James], of Muncie; one brother, Philip, being absent. Mrs. Moore had one brother present, Lloyd Wilcoxon [Jr.], of Muncie; one sister absent in Minnesota. Mr. and Mrs. Moore have been blessed with eight children, four boys and four girls. Their names are as follows: Louisa Skiff, wife of Dr. Skiff of Selma; Asbury Moore, of Sidney, Ohio; John L. Moore, of Indianapolis; Elizabeth Burtt (wife of Henry Burtt), near Selma; William R. Moore, of Union City; Charles W. Moore, of Winchester; Miss Sarah A. Moore, of Selma; and Syntha [sic] E. Clark (wife of John Clark), of Selma. All of the children were present at this celebration, and, remarkable to say, death has not entered this household in the past 50 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore have 14 grandchildren living. All were present except two. They have one great-grandchild, Orley C. Skiff, son of Eberley and Martha Skiff, near Selma.

There were six persons present on Thursday the 13th inst. who were present on Thursday, the 13th of August, 1835, who witnessed the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Moore. They are Levi Moore and wife, Lloyd Wilcoxon and wife, Mrs. Jemima Wilcoxon, and Sarah Jane Lewellen.

The pleasant day, the beautiful shady grounds around the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Moore, the joyous children, the happy reunion of relatives, the sumptuous repast, all made the rare occasion one of great pleasure. After dinner M. D. Goodlander of Muncie photographed the Moore family in a group, after which Levi Moore of Williamsport presented the presents to Mr. and Mrs. Moore in a neat and appropriate speech.

The presents were both appropriate and costly. Mr. Moore then gave an interesting biographical sketch of the past 75 years. Others made remarks, attesting their pleasure in the celebration.

William J. Moore is one of the landmarks of Liberty Township, and is a man of high intelligence. His counsel is often asked in matters of deep interest; he has filled many places of honor and trust and has been found competent and worthy. The interest he takes in matters of state, church, education and temperance makes him a citizen of high value. His industry made him successful as a farmer, and his genius made him a master of four mechanical pursuits. Such men we love and honor. His most estimable wife is a Christian woman of rare and noble traits of character and capable and worthy to train a noble family."

MOORE

The surname Moore came to England with the Conqueror, and among the survivors of the Battle of Hastings in 1066, was Thomas de Moore, who was the recipient of many favors at the hands of the triumphant invaders. Bearing on its roll the names of Sir John Moore and Tom Moore, this family has just reason to be proud of their honored surname.

JOHN MOORE, the immigrant ancestor of an early New England family of this name, was born in England, and is found on the town records of Sudbury, Massachusetts, as early as 1642, at which time he purchased of the pioneer, Edmund Rice, a house and land in Sudbury. The Rice farm was in the oldest part of the town, and was in that section later called Wayland. John Moore took the oath of fidelity in Sudbury, July 9, 1645, and died there January 6, 1674. His will, dated August 25, 1668, was proved April 7, 1674, at Cambridge, Massachusetts. He bequeathed to sons John of Lancaster, William, Jacob, Joseph (to whom he left the homestead), and Benjamin. Also daughters Elizabeth, wife of Henry Rice; Mary, wife of Daniel Stone; and Lydia, wife of James Cutler. The inventory of the estate showed goods valued at 804 pounds and 7 shillings. His widow, Elizabeth, was named executrix. He married, doubtless in England, Elizabeth, daughter of Philemon Whale. (See note.) Widow Elizabeth Moore died in Sudbury, December 14, 1690. They were the parents of the following children:

- I—ELIZABETH, b. .... (See following.)
- II—John, b. .... (eldest son); m. (first) Nov. 16, 1654, Anne Smith, who died Mar. 10, 1670-1; m. (second) Judith —. Settled in Lancaster, Mass.
- III—William, b. .... (Bought land in Sudbury, 1664.)
- IV—Mary, b. Sept. 8, 1641; m. (first) Richard Ward; (second) Daniel Stone.
- V—Lydia, b. June 24, 1643; m. (first) May 3, 1664, Samuel Wright; m. (second) June 15, 1665, James Cutler.
- VI—Jacob, b. Apr. 28, 1645; m. May 29, 1667, Elizabeth Loker.
- VII—Joseph, b. Oct. 21, 1647; m. (first) Lydia Hayward. Inherited the homestead.
- VIII—Benjamin, b. Dec. 13, 1648; m. Dorothy Wright.

WHALE NOTE

PHILEMON WHALE, born in England, was in Sudbury, Massachusetts, in 1646, and a freeman there May 10, 1648. He married (first), in England, Elizabeth, whose suranme is not recorded, but who died in Sudbury, June 20, 1647. He married (second), November 7, 1649, Sarah, daughter of Ensign Thomas and Sarah (Busby) (Cakebread) of Watertown, Massachusetts. She died in Sudbury, December 28, 1656. (Sudbury records.) Philemon Whale married for his third wife, November 9, 1657, Elizabeth Griffin, believed to have been the widow of Hugh Griffin, one of the first settlers in Sudbury. Elizabeth (Griffin) Whale died November 8, 1688. Philemon Whale died in Sudbury, February 1, 1675-6. He left a will, dated January 18, 1675, which was proved October 7, 1677, in which he mentions his daughter ELIZABETH MOORE and her four sons by name. (Boston Transcript, April 20, 1926.) In the list of losses and claims resulting from the burning of Sudbury by the Indians in 1676, the name of Widow Whale is recorded. (Hudson's History of Sudbury, Massachusetts.)

MOORE

SECOND GENERATION

ELIZABETH MOORE (I), daughter of John and Elizabeth (Whale) Moore, was born doubtless in England and came with her parents to Sudbury, Massachusetts, in 1642, and married there, February 1, 1643, Henry Rice. (See Rice I.) She died in Framingham, Massachusetts, August 3, 1705.

MORGAN

Celtic in its origin, the name Morgan, in the principality of Wales, is older than the advent of the Saxon race or language. It was common at the time of the Conquest, and appears in the Doomsday Book and the Battle Abbey Roll. Among the Welsh several sovereign princes and other potentates of the Morgan line were living as early as the year 300 or 400. One of these princes, Morgan of Gla Morgan, in 725, is said to have invented trial by jury, a procedure which he called "the Apostolic law." "As Chirst and the twelve Apostles are finally to judge the world, so human tribunals should be composed of the king and twelve wise men." This institution preceded by a century and a half the time of Alfred the Great, who is generally credited with the law.

In the latter part of the sixteenth century the family from which were derived the ancestors of the American branch moved from Wales to Bristol, England. The immediate family of MILES MORGAN, who came to Massachusetts, was of Glamorganshire, Wales, and there is reason to believe that his father was William Morgan. Among the early families of the American pioneer there was a tradition of a little book owned by James Morgan, the brother of Miles, dated before 1600 and inscribed with the name William Morgan of Llandaff. Other evidences in the shape of antique gold sleeve-buttons stamped "W. M." in the possession of James Morgan, pointed to the same conclusion, and these were said to have been an heirloom from William Morgan of Llandaff. (New England Genealogy (Cutter), Vol. I, p. 24.)

MILES MORGAN, who founded the family of his name in New England, was born probably in Llandaff, Glamorganshire, Wales, about 1615. Accompanying his older brother, James Morgan (who settled in New London, Connecticut), and John Morgan (who went to Virginia), he sailed from Bristol, England, and arrived in Boston in April, 1636. His first residence was in Roxbury, and there it is believed he remained for some years. Subsequently, he joined the company, which led by Sir William Pynchon, had founded Agawam (Springfield) on the Connecticut river. The place was established in 1636, and the name of Miles Morgan appears on the records in 1643, showing that he was there before this date, but it is not known how long before. He became one of the leading men of Agawam, and acquired an extensive tract of land. He was also a trader, sailing a vessel up and down the river. One of the few fortified houses in Agawam belonged to him, and he was one of the leaders of the militia, having the rank of sergeant. In all the fighting in which the little settlement was engaged to protect itself from the attacks of the surrounding savages, he was much depended upon for his valor and skill as a soldier. When, during King Philip's war in 1675, the Indians made an attack on Agawam and nearly destroyed the town, his house was the central place of refuge for the belligerent inhabitants. His sons, following the footsteps of their father, were two noted Indian hunters, and one of them, Peletiah Morgan, was killed by Indians. In the "records or list of ye names of the townsmen or men of this Towne of Springfield in February, 1664," written by Elizur Holyoke, Miles Morgan appears as sergeant. In 1655-57, 1660-62-68, he was a selectman. Serving one year as constable, he held various other offices and committee memberships during his long and eventful life. He died May 28, 1699, in Springfield, Massachusetts, and a fine bronze statue of a Puritan soldier standing in one of the public parks of this city, enduringly commemorates his fame. He married (first), in 1643, Prudence Gilbert of Beverly, Massachusetts. Tradition says that on the ship in which Miles Morgan came to Boston, Prudence Gilbert was also a passenger.

I am looking for the father of Phillip Moore. I have seen a lot of different names mentioned, John Moore seems to be most mentioned. I have no proof as of yet. The dates on most of the John Moore's mentioned are to late to be Phillip's father. We need help to find his Father.

One clue is that his daughter Anna was married in 1743 in Pa.

Phillip Moore

Moved to West Augusta Co. Va. (SW Pa. Then to Monongalia Co.) he made statement to Samuel Minor, which he named his children, to probate Conrad Moore's Will.

Anna Marya Moore

Died in Fayette Co. Pa.

Information on Phillip Moore

Before 1748 he moved to South Branch of Potomac. 1748, his home was mentioned by George Washington as being a house rather than a cabin, Received land grant on Aug. 7, 1749 from Lord Fairfax of Scotland. This was on Lot Number 15. Dec. 1757 he attended stock sale with sons, Phillip, Jr. and Conrad . Dec. 6, 1762 he received second grant for Lot Number 20, from Lord Fairfax. His name appears to be spelled Mohr, More, Moore. Depends on nationality of who was recording information.

Priscilla Jane was born in DeKalb county in 1841 to William and Priscilla Moore. In 1860 she married Samuel Colwell in Walla Walla county Washington. Samuel died in 1873, and he is who I have no ancestry for. Can anyone fill in some facts? Sylvia

Sylvia:

I don't know whether or not William's father was killed in about 1820. Don't know who his father was, for that matter, although I am virtually positive his grandparents were Thomas Moore, Sr. and Eunice Belle. It is interesting to me that there was a William Moore who had property in Wayne County, Ohio when William, husband of Priscilla, was too young to own property. He lived adjacent to Wm. Berry, who married one of the daughters of Thomas and Eunice. Do you know anything about William's parents or grandparents?

Priscilla was an Ayres/Ayers, depending on where the name appears. Her family is easier to trace.

I live in Washington state, but not particularly near Walla Walla. Is there something I can try to look up for you?

Meri

Somehow I missed reading the notification that you had posted this message. Sorry this is so late. Just curious, how are you connected to the family?

I only know that William was born in Pennsylvania, no county. That William on the Ohio census was probably just another Moore. In the book published about the Moores, the first census it tells about is for Indiana in 1850. There are no names of parents or grand parents. How did you find the grandparent's names? One of William and Priscilla's daughters was named Eunice Bell. I'm descended from another, Priscilla Jane.

She married Samuel Colwell. I have no information on him at all except he had two brothers, Frank and Marion, and a sister Amy. His father's name was Levi, no mother's name. They were married in Walla Walla in 1860, but the records were burned! I haven't been able to find him in any census but a Priscilla Colwell appeared on the 1860 census for Walla Walla (I think that's the year). The couple had a homestead in Cove, Oregon in Union County and Samuel died in 1873 and is buried in Cove Cemetery. I wish I had some proof he even existed besides me and my brothers. Sylvia

These settlers were entitled to reserved land westward of Fort Cumberland in Washington County, MD and were on the 1788 "Deakin's Survey". Alexander, Daniel and William Moore had lots there. I can't trace them back prior to 1788. The following were there also and I know they came from NJ and Daniel Moore married Deborah Poling, d/o Martin Poling. The Polings that had lots there were Margaret, Samuel, Martin SR & JR, Richard and Peter. I am especially interested in the Moore's.

Membership Dues:

Friends of Beech Grove Cemetery Society was established in 1992. Friends of Beech Grove has been recognized under the umbrella of The Community Foundation of Muncie and Delaware County as a non-profit organization.

Friends of Beech Grove Cemetery Society is a group of interested persons whose primary objective is to preserve the cemetery's historical integrity; preserve the chapel and grave sites; promote beautification and enhancement efforts, and provide educational materials. Friends will solicit funds from grants, private donations, foundations, and fund-raising drives.

The intent of the Society is to establish a Perpetual Care Endowment, using only the interest from the endowment to achieve the above mentioned objectives. This endowment will in turn help to address long-term needs so that Beech Grove Cemetery will be preserved into the next century and beyond.

1991 marked the 150 years existence of Beech Grove.

The trustees of Munseytown purchased the land which began Beech Grove Graveyard in December of 1841. Since the purchase of the original one and a half acres, Beech Grove has grown to approximately 100 acres. There are approximately 40,000 burials here with space still available.

The earliest tombstone in Beech Grove is that of Mary Bishop Gilbert. She died in 1828. She was the first wife of Goldsmith Coffeen Gilbert, the founder of Muncie. Mary is buried next to her husband who died in 1844.

There are two American Revolutionary War heroes, numerous Civil War veterans and also many who served our country during this century. There is also an uncountable number of business people, politicians, educators, developers, and other such individuals who have made both big and small impacts on our community.

Recently, the cemetery has been designated as an Historic District, and it is anticipated that Beech Grove will soon be listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

Here is a website showing the home of Philip and Jemima Lewis Robey Moore. When you click on the sign and enter the site, there is a youtube tour of the house lasting a little over a minute. This will be of interest primarily to the Philip Moore and William Robey descendants, but many of the Collins family members probably passed through those doors as well, as Judge John Collins was a devout Methodist for 40 years before becoming a Baptist. I wanted to share this bit of our family heritage with each of you, especially the youtube show. There are some nice photos too. I found them on a Google search.

Note on page sent to me: "(The two pages of this Bible containing family information had been torn from the Bible long ago. At this point there remains but one-half of one of the pages--the other is completely missing. The original pages are in the possession of Mrs. Thomas P. Salyer . . . )"

This fragment of a Bible Record is in the possession of Barbara Baldwin Salyer, a Francis Asbury Robey Descendant, who was undoubtedly the person who typed the copy I now have. It is incomplete, and was possibly a Bible belonging to Francis Asbury Robey or a member of his family. I have endeavored to preserve the original spelling, grammar, and punctuation. I have also left in the known mistakes, such as the death date for Mary Robey and Levi Robey. R. Campbell, Ed.

Elm Ridge Cemetery
4600 W. Kilgore
Muncie, IN 47304

Greetings,

My husband is a descendant of one of the Moore families in your area. I found your address on the Delaware Co., IN, website where they had all cemeteries listed with inscriptions except for 3 in Muncie and yours is one of them.

I am wondering if anyone there can help with either getting an inscription list or at least telling me if you have Moores and/or Calverts buried in your Cemetery. And how I might obtain a copy of the names and information concerning these folks.

I found many of the family listed in the cemeteries that are on line, but am missing a Phillip Moore and his wife Sarah McCall Moore, and Phillip's sister, Catherine/Cynthia Calvert who married Jacob Calvert. There were several children of Catherine and Jacob who also must be buried in the city cemeteries.

So guess what I am asking .....is there a way we can obtain this information?? Do you have such records that could be copied?? And how much would you charge for a list of Moores and Calverts (with dates and info) that might be buried in your cemetery? I will enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for your answer.

Thanks so much.

I am sorry that I was unable to find either of these two couples here at Elm Ridge.

Unfortunately, there are too many Moores to list. There are not as many Calverts, however, it again is extremely time consuming. If you have specific names, we would be able to look those up. Thanks, Vicki Cook

Dear all—I got the note below today and thought you might all have some interest in seeing it. I went to the site and she has photos of all the Robey graves at the Bratton Cemetery in Austin Texas, including those of William and Mary Collins Robey. She did a lot of work on that cemetery, and isn't related to anyone there. She got some good pictures. I'll definitely put some of them on the website when time permits.

Dear Betty,

I have 230 Moores in Beechgrove.
Enclosed are all the Sarah's I have. I find no Phillip, no McCall (NEE), or Phillips sister (name?). Also enclosed is a copy of the Moores in the Parker Moore Cemetery.

I have several Calverts (also enclosed)
Hopefully Jacob and Cynthia are yours,
Feel free to E-mail us.

Your servant,

G. Tom Schenck

Sept.

Hi, and thanks for getting right back to me. Tom had sent me information which was very helpful, but then saw this Sarah Moore in Lot #920 and needed more information. He sent a map of a section of the cemetery that contained the Calvert families #519 and #521. It contained graves of about #503 up the 530's. It showed the blocks , and apparently who bought them. If you have something like that for the old section which contains #920, it might be very helpful. And if you know if she has a marker or who might be buried next to her in the same lot.

Our Sarah would have been born at the same time this Sarah was. Not too many that old buried around Muncie. Someone must have purchased Lot #920 and surely others are buried there too. I suspect that if this is our Sarah Moore, then she might have been buried in the same lot as her daughter who was Catherine or Cynthia Calvert who died about 1848-1852. The Cynthia that is in the Lot #521 is a daughter and not the mother Catherine.

So I guess if you can tell me who purchased Lot #920 and who else might be buried there in that same lot it might settle the question if this is, indeed, our Sarah.

Hello Sue,

glad to hear from you. And thanks so much for all you sent. I have not had the time to digest all of it as yet, but thought I would get back to you by e-mail to say a great big thanks, and then will make some copies of the more current descendants of Phillip and Sarah Moore and put them in the mail to you.

At the end of this letter I will send to you what I received on the probate of John Moore. I do not have the probate papers, but think that Ralph may send them to me or to you if I tell him who you are. We have been working on this Moore family for quite some time. My first breakthrough was to discover Randall Campbell and his Robey website on line. I assume you have already checked that. And I do not know where Ralph Diehl got his probate information, but assume he sent to the government office in Muncie to find it. He just never said. Ralph is also a descendant of Cynthia A. Moore who married William Hollopeter here in Allen Co., IN. He is normally very willing to share what he has. I was surprised that he didn't send me copies of the original papers, but with his summary of them, I learned a lot.

That is what I am sending to you at this time.....the summary as sent to me. Will work on getting the actual papers later on. They may be available to you right there in Muncie.

Glad to find out the name of your John's wife was Sarah Lewis. I just had her as Sarah. Could you send me the children of John and Sarah?? At this point it is rather hard to put all the Moores of Scioto Co., Ohio, who moved to Indiana in their proper families. I have worked with the cemetery listings and that helps but seems there are always 4 or 5 of the same name and hard to get them into the right families. I have pretty much studied the histories of Delaware Co., marriage and cemetery records. One thing leads to another, but what you sent adds much to my information.

Did have a couple of questions. One was about the Amos that you have as a son of John Moore and Nancy Jackson. As you will see by the probate information following that there is no mention of any Amos in these and he would have been a minor child at the time. So was wondering if he might be a son of one of the other elder Moores and not of John? I note he is buried at Parker-Moore Cemetery as are some of the other children of John and Nancy, but wondering why he wasn't mentioned in the probate papers. Also Caroline was not mentioned.

Another thing I discovered in my checking around between Ohio and Indiana is that Amos who married Winifred Calvert must have had a previous wife who was the mother of his children. She was Jemima, but do not have a maiden name for her. I found this in the bio of his grandson, Emanuel Moore, on the Scioto site. He merely says that his father was Evan Moore, and his grandparents were Amos and Jemima Moore, who came to Ohio in 1797, so apparently at least 3 of the Moore boys came to Ohio about the same time, Phillip, John, and Amos, and then John and Amos left for Indiana about 1830 or so. Phillip, our John's father, and John, your ancestor, and Amos who was another "uncle" to our John and Nancy. Perhaps I have confused something here, but by the death dates it would appear that Winifred was a late wife of Amos and probably not the mother of his children, surely not the older ones. Actually the only sure child I had for Amos was Evan whose son was written about in the biography. But by the early census in Ohio it would appear they may have had 7 children.

I couldn't believe how many Moores there are in the world until I started working with this family! Sounds like a good time for me to visit Muncie is when you are having your celebration of Parker-Moore Cemetery. Perhaps I can talk my granddaughter into coming down with me as her husband's mother is still living in Muncie. Not sure if I gave you any info on them or not. Judy's husband is Gabe LaGrange. He played basketball in high school at Muncie a few years ago. Not sure why they ended up there as both his parents were from southern Indiana or Kentucky. The brochure about the house was very interesting. Yes, might like someday to visit the stone house in Portsmouth also. Too much to do with so little time!

Will work on other things to send to you, but here is the info I received about the probate papers of John Moore.

WHAT WE LEARN FROM JOHN MOORE'S PROBATE RECORDS:

Compiled by Ralph Diehl

1. Bond Issue for John Moore Estate (25 May 1840)

- a) This is the earliest document. John Moore died prior to 25 May 1840.
- b) Wm J. Moore is appointed administrator, proving this is the correct John Moore family in Delaware Co.
- c) In addition to Wm J. Moore, other signers of this bond were Jacob Calvert and Jahill Graham. Later on James Wilcoxon is raising minor son, Milton [see 7. e) below]. All three are major bidders in the sale to follow [see 6 b) below].

Might these be the husbands of older daughters Catherine and Jemina?

Hi again, Sue,

I ran across something that might be a clue of what happened to Phillip Moore who had been husband of Sarah McCall. First of all you mentioned that Phillip may have moved to Allen Co., because of the marriage in Grabill of Cynthia Moore and Wm. Hollopeter. However I have pretty much exhausted the Allen Co., DeKalb Co., and surrounding places for Philip Moore. There are several Moores, but do not seem to fit into this family. Cynthia's father was a M.E. circuit rider and he and her father made many trips here and there on their missions. So believe that Cynthia might have met William most any place and as both seem to be in the same denomination, and would say they might well have just been acquainted through the church.

From your information that Philip was still alive in 1885 at the 50th wedding anniversary of his brother Wm. Jackson Moore, I decided to go more thoroughly through the 1880 census records for any Philip Moore who might fill the bill.

This is what I found on the 1880 census of Flora, Clay Co., Illinois

Philip Moore.....married.....male, 64.....born Ohio.....stock dealer

No place of parents listed.

Mary J. Moore.....wife.....female, 48.....born IN.....both parents born Ohio

Florence Moore....dau.....female, 7.....born IL

Though I doubted our Philip would go that direction I further checked for the marriages of Phillips in Delaware county, IN, and found that.....

Philip Moore married Mary J. Lewellen on Aug. 13, 1870 ...Book C5, page 411

If Sarah McCall Moore was the Sarah Moore buried in 1869 at Beech Grove Cem., then a marriage in 1870 would not be out of order for Philip.

Do you know about checking the record books for these marriages?? Is there more information available in the books than we've in the typed up records?? Is it possible they give the ages of the folks getting married?? I will gladly pay if you know how to check these records or if they give us more information on the applicants than just the name and date. Because if this is our Philip then I will need to look in Illinois for a possible death and burial. And then there is little Florence and wonder what happened to her. She would have been born in 1873 after an 1870 marriage and be a child of Philip.

I did notice that there was a Sarah Jane Lewellen present at both the anniversary celebration and at the wedding of William Jackson Moore. Perhaps she is some relation to Mary J. Lewellen, or even possibly her mother.

Might even explain why Philip was absent from the party. He just was living too far away at the time to come home.

Went to the Urick website and did enjoy what I found there.

Dear Mrs. Fitch,

In response to your letter of 3/3/03, I have done only a little genealogy research, but have found no ties to Delaware County.

We moved here in August of 2000, and have no known relatives here.

As far back as I have traced them, all of my "Moore" relatives lived in Shelby County (Indiana).

My father was Frank D. Moore. His father was Alvy Otis Moore. His father was Robert Fulton Moore. His father was Moses Moore. His father was Thomas Moore - for whom I have a notation that he came over from Scotland, but that is not researched.

Good luck to you.

The home of his grandson, Charles Wesley (your Philip's brother) is owned and operated as a museum by Delaware County Historical Society! Did you know that? Charles, his daughter Mary, and her daughter, Mary (Youse) Maxon occupied the house 1864-1982.

I just confirmed this connection between the 2 museum homes, and it seems quite remarkable to me that no one else ever figured this out, and that the same family had 2 noteworthy homes in 2 centuries in 2 states! But, it has taken me over a year of hard work to straighten out the myriad of Moores to this point, and I'm not finished.

So, I am pleased to hear from a Moore cousin, and I hope some of this information is new and interesting to you. Dear Betty,

Thanks for your question about your Philip Moore. Normally, we charge $15 per hour for research, but I am going to waive the fee in your case, because I am a descendant of your John's uncle, also John Moore, and his wife, Sarah (Lewis). I have compiled quite a bit of information about this family, but I would very much appreciate a copy of the probate papers you mention, and would also like to have the information about the later generations you offered. We often can connect people searching the same family.

First, the bad news. I do not find your Philip or Sarah in the 1860 or 1870 Census, and do not find that they died or were buried in Delaware County! The Sarah you mentioned at Beech Grove could be the one, but I doubt that such a well-to-do and prominent family would have buried someone without a marker, and most of the other members of the family from that generation are buried at Parker Moore Cemetery, which, by the way, is set for restoration this coming summer. (I chair our Pioneer Cemetery Preservation Committee, and we restored Collins Cemetery last year. There is a Philip Moore buried there, but he is too old to be the one you seek; he is likely your Philip's uncle.)

We do find that Philip Moore married Sarah McCall in Delaware County on 6 July 1837. As you know, they do appear in the 1850 Census here, but not after that, so they must have moved, probably to Allen County, since the daughter you mention was married there. Luckily, the Allen County Library has the second largest genealogy collection in the state, so I suggest you continue to search for them there. Young, single women rarely lived alone in those days, so at least one of her parents must have lived there. Do you know the year of that marriage?

We also know that your Philip was alive in 1885, because his brother, William J. celebrated his 50th wedding anniversary that summer, and the occasion was covered in the Muncie newspaper. Philip is listed as "absent" from the celebration, but the fact that he is mentioned with the other siblings who did attend leads us to believe that he was alive. No mention of his wife or his place of residence at the time is given in that article, unfortunately. (William and his wife, Sarah (Wilcoxon) are also buried at Parker Moore Cemetery.)

I have no information about the McCalls, but it is likely that they did come from Scioto County, for so many of our pioneer families had been neighbors there. Your Philip's parents, John and Nancy (Jackson) were married in Scioto County on 12 July, 1806. They <sup>then</sup> ~~to~~ Delaware County in 1830, bringing most of their children (12 or 13 in all, sources vary). My theory is that they came here because Nancy's brother, Lemuel, had settled here in 1825 and was one of the founders of Muncietown, as it was called then. Scioto County borders the Ohio River, and I am guessing that there was one last flood that caused several of the Moores' relatives and neighbors to leave the area, even though they were well established and apparently successful farmers there. Nancy died in 1838; John died in 1840, and both are buried at Parker Moore Cemetery, as you likely know. (My ancestors, John and Sarah (Lewis) Moore appear to have come here at the same time; they died three days apart in Sept. 1839. They are also buried at Parker Moore, as are the son who is my ancestor, William Roby Moore, both of his wives, and some of their children.

By the way, the cemetery is named for Parker Moore, son of Lewis and Patience (Truitt). I'm not certain yet who the parents of Lewis are, but I think they may also be John and Sarah. I do know that the Jemima Freeman buried at Parker Moore is their daughter, and the Eleanor Truitt there is the sister of my John.

Still with me? There's more!

I am attaching a list of John and Nancy's children, with some information about each. (As a part of our restoration project, I'm compiling biographical data about everyone at Parker Moore Cemetery—a huge but rewarding task.) Anything you can add later would be MUCH appreciated!

We have traced this branch of the Moores to "Moore Place" in the Kent region of England, as early as 1400. The first family member to arrive in America appears to be Rev. John Moore, a young clergyman who married Margaret Howell (dau of Edward and Frances (Paxton) of Boston, later Newtown, Long Island. He died in September 1657 at Newtown, Long Island, age 37. Margaret's father is credited as a founder of Long Island; I can't yet confirm this. I do know that she married another clergyman after John's death.

John and Margaret's son, Gershom, was born about 1644 in Newtown, married Deborah Betts, died before 1691, probably on Long Island.

Their son Gershom Moore Jr. was born on Long Island, married Mercy Betts (How is she related to Deborah?), died 1722 in Maidenhead, New Jersey.

Their eldest son, Thomas, born 1704 Maidenhead, New Jersey, married Esther Phillips, died 1797 in Maidenhead, New Jersey.

Their son Philip was born 1726 in Maidenhead, New Jersey, married Eleanor "Nelly": Evans in Hunterdon County, New Jersey, 1747. (NOTE: There MUST be another wife for him, as you will agree when you look at the birth dates of his children.) I'm not certain of this birth order, but the names are correct, according to the DAR:

1. Philip Moore Jr. (YOUR ANCESTOR) Born 1761, New Jersey. Married Jemima (Lewis) Robey, widow of William Robey Sr., on 10 Dec. 1782 in Prince George County, MD. He died 3 Sep. 1823 in Scioto Co. Ohio; she died 26 Dec. 1821, Scioto Co. Ohio. They had 4 children (John, born 18 Oct. 1784, Levi, Philip III, Nelly, plus her son, William Robey Jr.). William moved to IL and later to Texas, died age 99. Levi remained in Ohio, his family became riverboat captains on the Ohio. His great-granddaughter, Marianne Moore won a Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1952. She never married. Nelly married Dr. Charles Waddell in Scioto County. Her descendant Audrey Johnson, joined the DAR in 1998. Jennifer Uricks, a descendant of Levi, has a

"William J. Moore was born in Scioto County, Ohio, June 4, 1813, died of cancer September 1, 1898, aged eighty years, two months and twenty-seven days. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the M.E. church, of which he had been an active and consistent member and one of its most liberal supporters ever since its organization; interment at the Moore graveyard two and one half miles east of this city, which was attended by a very large concourse of friends and relatives. The four sons and two son-in-laws [sic] acted as pall bearers.

The subject of this sketch removed from his native place and located in Delaware County some three miles southeast of Muncie in 1830. In the year 1852 he left his farm, now owned by Mr. Charles Cecil, and moved to Selma and engaged in the mercantile business and continued to reside in the town of which he was one of the founders, until his demise.

He was a man of strong mind and individuality, a close reader, a deep thinker and a ready debater. He greatly delighted in debating with opponents worthy of his steel. He was a good neighbor, kind, considerate, sympathetic, ever ready to extend a helping hand to the needy. He said to the writer only a few days before his death, 'that the only thing of a worldly nature that worried him now was what would become of the poor people during these troublesome times,' referring to the scarcity of money and the closing down of factories. In politics he was a staunch Republican and loyal to the core. His honesty and integrity were unquestioned. He was never known to do a dishonest act during his long life.

He married Sarah Wilcoxon, a woman of sterling worth, August 13, 1835, with whom he happily traveled down life's pathway for more than 57 years, or until the 12th day of last January when she, at the call of her Master, passed beyond the gates and as father said as he lovingly placed his hand on her face said in death, 'she has only gone on before to prepare a place for me.'

To them were born eight children: four sons, Asbury, of Bellefontaine, Ohio; John L. of Indianapolis; William Roby of this city and Charles Wesley of Winchester; and four daughters, Mrs. Dr. Skiff; Mrs. W. H. Burtt; Mrs. John W. Clark; and Miss Sarah A. Moore, all living in or near Selma, and all of whom were spared and permitted to attend the last sad rites of their respected and beloved father."

Source: Muncie Daily Times, Sept. 5, 1898. Apparently, this tribute was written by one of the children.

Editor's note: William J. and Sarah (Wilcoxon) Moore are buried in Parker Moore Cemetery, as are their pioneering parents, John and Nancy (Jackson) Moore, and Lloyd and Elizabeth (Truitt) Wilcoxon.

Liberty Township Pioneer William Jackson Moore Celebrated Golden Wedding Anniversary August 13, 1885

"One of the most pleasant and interesting meetings of this kind ever held in this county was assembled in Selma at the residence of William J. Moore, August 13, 1885, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of William J. Moore and Sarah Moore, his wife. William J. Moore was born in Oldtown, Scioto County, Ohio, June 4, 1813. He came to Delaware County, Ind., in the fall of 1830 [with his parents, John and Nancy (Jackson) Moore], where he has resided ever since. Sarah Wilcoxon was born in Oldtown, Scioto County, Ohio, April 3, 1816, and has been a resident of this county since the fall of 1832. William J. Moore and Sarah Wilcoxon were married [in Delaware County] August 13, 1835, their residence then being on White River, three miles southeast of Muncie, and until May, 1852, since which time they have lived in Selma.

There were present of Mr. Moore's brothers and sisters Levi Moore, of Marion County, Ind.; Charles W. Moore, of Muncie; Enos Moore, of Warren County, Ind.; and Mrs. Jemima Wilcoxon [wife of Sarah's brother, James], of Muncie; one brother, Philip, being absent. Mrs. Moore had one brother present, Lloyd Wilcoxon [Jr.], of Muncie; one sister absent in Minnesota. Mr. and Mrs. Moore have been blessed with eight children, four boys and four girls. Their names are as follows: Louisa Skiff, wife of Dr. Skiff of Selma; Asbury Moore, of Sidney, Ohio; John L. Moore, of Indianapolis; Elizabeth Burtt (wife of Henry Burtt), near Selma; William R. Moore, of Union City; Charles W. Moore, of Winchester; Miss Sarah A. Moore, of Selma; and Syntha [sic] E. Clark (wife of John Clark), of Selma. All of the children were present at this celebration, and, remarkable to say, death has not entered this household in the past 50 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore have 14 grandchildren living. All were present except two. They have one great-grandchild, Orley C. Skiff, son of Eberley and Martha Skiff, near Selma.

There were six persons present on Thursday the 13th inst. who were present on Thursday, the 13th of August, 1835, who witnessed the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Moore. They are Levi Moore and wife, Lloyd Wilcoxon and wife, Mrs. Jemima Wilcoxon, and Sarah Jane Lewellen.

The pleasant day, the beautiful shady grounds around the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Moore, the joyous children, the happy reunion of relatives, the sumptuous repast, all made the rare occasion one of great pleasure. After dinner M. D. Goodlander of Muncie photographed the Moore family in a group, after which Levi Moore of Williamsport presented the presents to Mr. and Mrs. Moore in a neat and appropriate speech.

The presents were both appropriate and costly. Mr. Moore then gave an interesting biographical sketch of the past 75 years. Others made remarks, attesting their pleasure in the celebration.

William J. Moore is one of the landmarks of Liberty Township, and is a man of high intelligence. His counsel is often asked in matters of deep interest; he has filled many places of honor and trust and has been found competent and worthy. The interest he takes in matters of state, church, education and temperance makes him a citizen of high value. His industry made him successful as a farmer, and his genius made him a master of four mechanical pursuits. Such men we love and honor. His most estimable wife is a Christian woman of rare and noble traits of character and capable and worthy to train a noble family."

Obituary of William J. Moore

"William J. Moore was born in Scioto County, Ohio, June 4, 1813, died of cancer September 1, 1898, aged eighty years, two months and twenty-seven days. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the M.E. church, of which he had been an active and consistent member and one of its most liberal supporters ever since its organization; interment at the Moore graveyard two and one half miles east of this city, which was attended by a very large concourse of friends and relatives. The four sons and two son-in-laws [sic] acted as pall bearers.

The subject of this sketch removed from his native place and located in Delaware County some three miles southeast of Muncie in 1830. In the year 1852 he left his farm, now owned by Mr. Charles Cecil, and moved to Selma and engaged in the mercantile business and continued to reside in the town of which he was one of the founders, until his demise.

He was a man of strong mind and individuality, a close reader, a deep thinker and a ready debater. He greatly delighted in debating with opponents worthy of his steel. He was a good neighbor, kind, considerate, sympathetic, ever ready to extend a helping hand to the needy. He said to the writer only a few days before his death, 'that the only thing of a worldly nature that worried him now was what would become of the poor people during these troublesome times,' referring to the scarcity of money and the closing down of factories. In politics he was a staunch Republican and loyal to the core. His honesty and integrity were unquestioned. He was never known to do a dishonest act during his long life.

He married Sarah Wilcoxon, a woman of sterling worth, August 13, 1835, with whom he happily traveled down life's pathway for more than 57 years, or until the 12th day of last January when she, at the call of her Master, passed beyond the gates and as father said as he lovingly placed his hand on her face said in death, 'she has only gone on before to prepare a place for me.'

To them were born eight children: four sons, Asbury, of Bellefontaine, Ohio; John L. of Indianapolis; William Roby of this city and Charles Wesley of Winchester; and four daughters, Mrs. Dr. Skiff; Mrs. W. H. Burtt; Mrs. John W. Clark; and Miss Sarah A. Moore, all living in or near Selma, and all of whom were spared and permitted to attend the last sad rites of their respected and beloved father."

MOORE YOUSE HOME MUSEUM

A Piece of
Delaware County History

The two south bedrooms on the 2nd floor are part of the two-up, two-down Adams structure as it existed at the time the Moore family moved into the house in 1864. The south bedroom has the original wood graining known to be popular in mid century. The large heavy pieces of furniture are typically Victorian. This room was the site of two major events in the family's life, the birth of Mary in 1896 and the death of Charles Wesley Moore in 1898. The nursery is the most eclectic room in decoration, with children's toys and furnishings from several different decades.

The dining room centers on the 1910s, but has reminders of earlier times also. The mourning picture, which dates to the period of 1815-1822, was the formal expression of mourning made by a girl (Will Youse's grandmother) whose brother died at the age of 22. The dishes and silverplate illustrate the Sunday best of this middle class family.

Although there were never any fireplaces in the house, there are two mantle shelves, one in the dining room and the other in the main bedroom. In fact, the mantle shelf remained a staple of wall decoration for years after stoves eliminated fireplaces in many homes.

Delaware County History

When Mary (Youse) Maxon died in 1982, she left her house and its contents to the Delaware County Historical Society with the provision that the organization establish and maintain a museum of Delaware County history.

The Moore-Youse home and the story of the three generations who lived there are used to illustrate the history of the community. This middle class home and its furnishings are like the homes of most middle class families of the period.

The house first came into the family when Samuel Wilson purchased the house in early 1864 and later in the year passed it on to his daughter, Clara Jane. Clara had married C. W. Moore and they had two small children, Mary E. and Charles, when they moved into the house in 1864.

The house grew as the family grew. The present furnishings were purchased over many years. The family apparently bought the best they could afford and seldom discarded pieces.

After an extended courtship, Mary E., better known as Mayme or Mamie, married William Riley Youse in 1893. Their daughter, Mary, did not marry until after the deaths of her parents in the 1940s. Her husband, John J. Maxon, died in 1957. Mary (Youse) Maxon died in 1982 at the age of 86.

People today have difficulty envisioning three generations in this middle class home. After their marriage in 1893, Will and Mayme Youse lived there with her parents. Then Mary was born in 1896. C. W. Moore died in 1898 and Clara Moore lived until 1904. Thus all three generations lived together for a few years.

The House

The house probably began as a one-room cabin before 1849. It is thought that the structure became a typical "two up, two down" house in 1849, when the property was first recorded by the Assessor. And thus it remained when C. W. and Clara Moore moved into it in 1864.

As C. W. Moore established his legal practice and the family needs grew, additions were made. The present dining room space was first added onto the northwest corner, then the present kitchen and docent lounge in the northeast corner. It appears that C. W. Wilson had a small office for a few years in the present docent lounge—the door transom is still there.

The back parlor or music parlor decoration has been based on an early 1900s picture of the room showing a Christmas tree with decorations and presents appropriate to the child, Mary, born in 1896. The large J. Ottis Adams painting of the Bookbinder's Daughter is a main feature of the room.

The entry hall reflects the 1880s, not long after the entry area with its new stairway along the new dining room wall was added. The hall tree was an important piece of furniture in this period, as it provided a place to put hats, gloves, umbrellas and canes for visitors to the home.

Most of the furnishings and accessories in the Moore Youse Home Museum belonged to the middle class family who lived there from 1864 until 1982. The rooms are decorated to reflect various periods of time in the life of that family.

Muncie, IN 47304

Greetings,

My husband is a descendant of one of the Moore families in your area. I found your address on the Delaware Co., IN, website where they had all cemeteries listed with inscriptions except for 3 in Muncie and yours is one of them.

I am wondering if anyone there can help with either getting an inscription list or at least telling me if you have Moores and/or Calverts buried in your Cemetery. And how I might obtain a copy of the names and information concerning these folks.

I found many of the family listed in the cemeteries that are on line, but am missing a Phillip Moore and his wife Sarah McCall Moore, and Phillip's sister, Catherine/Cynthia Calvert who married Jacob Calvert. There were several children of Catherine and Jacob who also must be buried in the city cemeteries.

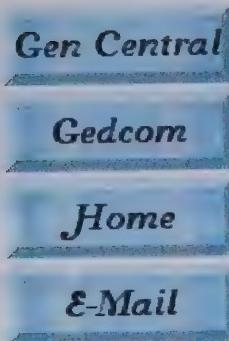

So guess what I am asking .....is there a way we can obtain this information?? Do you have such records that could be copied?? And how much would you charge for a list of Moores and Calverts (with dates and info) that might be buried in your cemetery? I will enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for your answer.

Thanks so much.

Hi Ralph,

Thanks so much for all the information. I'm so glad you moved on ahead to find out what you could about John and Phillip Moore. Seems like I have the greatest intentions to do so, but other things seem to always get in the way. But you gave me inspiration to do what I had intended to do for quite a while, and that is to get some letters off to some of the Moore family in Muncie to see if we maybe could find a correspondent who is interested in the Moore genealogy and maybe a descendant of John and/or Phillip. Surely someone there at least knows who their great grandparents were and possibly further back. I just chose some names from the phone book to contact and my letters are all stamped and ready to go. I did that for the Fitch family in Connecticut and did get several answers back. Now all I have to do is traverse my long driveway to the mailbox!! And sometimes that is not easy. Snowing a little right now, but we aren't to get much they say, and hope they are right. Like everyone else, I am really ready for spring.

Not sure if I told you, but my granddaughter, Judy, married a young man who grew up in Muncie and his mother is still living there. I intend to contact her and get the name of another fellow she knows works with who is a Moore. Maybe with a reference to her, he will be more agreeable to putting us in touch with the Moores who happen to be ancestor-minded. Especially if my letters don't bring any results. I wrote to a couple Johns and one Phillip (the only Phillip I found in the phone book) and a couple others so it is like a "pig in a poke" I guess. But am hoping to find someone of the right family.

Yes, it would appear that John was a fairly spiritual man. At least in those days to have all those books would make it seem so. We know that Cynthia Moore set up her alter in her home the very first thing, so would assume she was continuing right on that tradition, and then she married the son of a Methodist minister. I am wondering just how they met. Do you suppose it was at a Methodist convention or rival meeting or something??? Would be interesting to know. I guess you follow on the family tradition also, loving God and the gospel, as did several of the Hollopeters.

My friend here says she is sure the big old Bible she has belonged to Rev. Andrew Hollopeter, even though her ancestor and Andrew would have been just 2nd or 3rd cousins. I think it is a leap in the dark to think that she would end up with his Bible, but it may be so. No way to prove it and there are no family records in the Bible and it is falling apart quite badly. If we ever get a place (the Huntertown Historical Soc.) to display things, she will probably put out the Bible on display.

I haven't had the time to really study your information thoroughly as yet, but it surely is the family of the John we were looking for. And appears that Phillip was living in the area and would have been married with a home of his own to take in his younger brothers. Since Phillip and Sarah McCall married in 1837 and John died in 1840, that would seem to fit quite well.

None of my information can pin point where Lewis Moore came from. Since the information is minimal on some of the other brothers of the Moore's who came to Scioto Co., Ohio, it makes it hard as we know there were probably other children, cousins, etc., of the first Moore brothers who came. I assume he is a child of one of them, and he might be a brother to John, even though I don't have a Lewis as such. They both seemed to come to Delaware Co., IN about the same time.

Noting that Jacob Calvert and James Wilcoxon are in laws.....not sure, but don't think I have found a Graham connection. Jemima married James Wilcoxen in 1840, and Catherine was married to Jacob Calvert in 1826 (she was called Cynthia in the marriage records, and named a daughter, Cynthia) .....the family which may still reside in Muncie. Need to check that one out too. Some of unknown names need to be checked out like "Spencer".....who might be related to Lewis. I didn't know John S. Moore was John Spencer Moore. In fact I think I had "W" for his middle initial and not sure where that one came from either. (I did find that but not sure if the John W. Moore I had in this family was in the correct family, which might explain it if he belonged to another.....John W. had gone to Iowa)

This gives us a good view of John Moore's family and surely makes the story more interesting. If I find any other connections will let you know. Again thanks so much for all your work. I will put this in my FTM and will keep working on it. I need to review my Delaware Co. Moore Marriage records and what census I happen to have for them again. A William Moore married Sarah Wilcoxon in 1835. May not be our William J. though.

Also a possible connection with the Phillip Moore and Apiana Gunn family who also came to Delaware Co., IN, and were in the right age bracket to have our Phillip. Apiana was there in 1840 census and apparently her husband was dead as she was Household, and a probable daughter Joanna Gunn Moore married William Craig there in 1839. Too many Moores!!!

Cuz, Betty.....well, sort of a cuz anyway!

Hi Randy,

I thought I would send this along to you as I found it on the internet in the Delaware County, IN, Census of 1850. Previously I had printed off the 1850 from some source, but it did not contain Phillip. This census clearly had him there. I had wondered what happened to him.

1850 census of Niles Township, Delaware County, IN

Philip Moore.....	35 M.....	Farmer.....	5,000.....	born Ohio.....	1815
Sarah Moore.....	33 F.....			born Ohio.....	1818
Cynthia A. Moore.....	12 F.....			born IN.....	1838
Mary Moore.....	9 F.....			born IN.....	1841
Solomon R. Moore.....	7 M.....			born IN.....	1843
Caroline Moore.....	5 F.....			born IN.....	1845
Sarah Moore.....	2 F.....			born IN.....	1848
Enos Moore.....	17 M.....			born IN.....	1833

Two items in this census report gives us the connecting facts to make this our Phillip and Sarah family. 1. Cynthia A. Moore is in this family and the right age and the right place.

2. Enos Moore, brother of Philip, is living with them, just as his father's probate papers stated. This makes Philip the son of John Moore who died about 1840.

And we can connect John to Phillip and Jemima because William Robey said their "John" was the John who died in Muncie, Indiana, in 1840.

Note above also that a son Solomon R. (Robey???) was born to Phillip and Sarah though he did die young and that is a clue to me that Sarah McCall was of the Solomon McCall family of Scioto Co., Ohio. It was a good week!!

Ralph Diehl is the relative of my husband who I had been contacting. I did send him the new information I have found and guess I never dreamed he would contact you too. I gave him your website so he could also enjoy what you have on the Moore and Robey families. He is the one who has the probate papers. He just sent me a list of the things he found on the probate papers. Should you want more information on them, I am sure he would share them with you.

But after I found the 1850 census on line, I was satisfied that we have enough information to connect this family down to us. It looks at this time like there couldn't be an error here and our Phillip Moore who married Sarah McCall in 1837 is the son of John and John is the son of Phillip Moore and Jemima Lewis.

Now I need only to connect the Lewis Moore who pioneered along with John in Delaware County back to his parents. It appears he was born in 1797 in PA. Since his name is Lewis, I am thinking that he very well might be the brother of John and son of Phillip and Jemima. Not only did I find the census, I found the graves of most of the family, including Lewis, and his wife Patience Truitt. Along with that went to the BLManagement on line and printed off the original land transfers from the government to John and to Lewis. If you should want a copy of my information, I will be glad to print off and send it to you, though most of it came from the Delaware Co., IN website through Cyndi's List.

The cemetery lists are there plus the 1850 census and the land items from the Bureau of Land Management, which was also a link from the Delaware Co. site.

There seem to be a few other Moores there and my guess is that they are all connected through some of the older generations, sons of Joseph perhaps. Well, just wanted to let you know that all you started for us came to a continuing line of Moores and we could never have found it without your Robey and Moore information. So many thanks, and keep me on your mailing list, as I know there is more to learn on the Moores!

Ralph and Betty—It is an interesting co-incidence that you both wrote me about the same time and about the same people! I thought I should put you in touch with one another, and this is the easiest way to do it. I am pressed for time now, and will have to re-examine your letters later. Please keep me in the loop if you find anything new.

Ralph, you can find the Robey site easiest by using the link provided at the bottom of the page. A letter written to William Robey by his cousin, Absalom Ketcham, is in the University of Indiana Library. He lived in Crawford Co., Indiana. The letter is also on the website.

I'll try to write in a week or two, after finals are over.

Randy C.
